

You are in charge of deciding how people power their homes and industries

- How will energy be generated?
- Where should your energy be generated to create the most energy?
- How will power get from where it is generated to homes and industries?

Renewable Energy Expert

You are in charge of deciding where people get their food from

- What will you grow?
- Where will you grow it?

Food Production Expert

Water Conservation Expert

You are in charge of deciding how people use water.

- Where does the water come from?
- How will you collect it?
- What measures can you put in place to save water?

You are in charge of deciding the places people go and what activities they do.

- Schools
- Parks and nature reserves
- Outdoor community areas
- Libraries

Community Spaces Expert

You are in charge of deciding how people get around the island.

- Bike paths and walking trails
- electric buses or trams
- Boats for water transport

Sustainable Transport Expert

You are in charge of deciding where people live, and what their homes are like.

- Green roofs and plants
- Houses built with sustainable materials
- Natural lighting and ventilation

Eco-Friendly Building Expert

You are in charge of deciding what people do with their rubbish.

- Recycling bins for separating waste
- Composting areas of organic waste
- Policies for reducing plastic use

Waste Management Expert

- You are in charge of deciding how people have healthy lives.
- What special features could promote health for people and wildlife?
 - What happens if people get sick?

Health Expert